MAP of the
WEST INDIES
and MIDDLE CONTINENT of AMERICA
from the Latest Observations of John Blount Esq. & others
As Suppliment to the 1707 Map

The map depicts the Gulf of Mexico to the west, the Atlantic Ocean to the east, and the Caribbean Sea to the south. Major landmasses shown include North America (labeled 'NEW ENGLAND' and 'NEW SPAIN'), Central America (labeled 'MEXICO'), and the West Indies archipelago. The map is color-coded with various shades of green, yellow, and red to distinguish different regions and islands. Numerous smaller islands and coastal features are labeled, including 'Cuba', 'Haiti', 'Jamaica', and 'Yucatan'. The title block in the upper right corner provides the map's title and credits John Blount Esq. and others for the latest observations, as well as its role as a supplement to the 1707 map.
