Description:

Flawless example of rare (unrecorded)) map of Sicily, with an inset of its 3 Valleys, with a large vignette showing the eruption of Mt. Aetna.

While the size of the map are somewhat reminiscent of the work of Nicolas Sanson, the small vignette and scale of miles are not consistent with his work. A very rare map. We could only find a single reference to the map in a small auction in 2002 and other auction or dealer records going back 30 years.
