Description:

Rare birdseye view of Tacoma and Mountain Rainier, lithographed by E.S. Glover in London and published by A.L. Bancroft in San Francisco.

One of the earliest views of any city in Washington Territory.

The view is rare. OCLC locates 5 copies (Library of Congress, Penn State, University of Washington, Seattle Public Library and Washington State University)

Detailed Condition:

Narrow margins, left and right.
