Description:

Rare early 18th Century plan of Turin, published by De Fer in Paris.

A rare early plan of Turin, one by De Fer, which may have formed the basis for a later variant of the map by Danet entitled Attaques de Turin par l'Armee du Roy Commandee par le Duc de la Feuillade en 1706 le 30 Juin, which was also engraved by Antoine Coquart. The elaborately decorated key locates approximately 20 places.

The map is very rare. OCLC locates only 2 examples (Bibliotheque National de Paris and British Library). The map or a variant edition copying De Fer's map also appears to have been issued in 1706.

Detailed Condition:

Minor repairs at centerfold
