Description:

Decorative map of the world, embellished with female representations of the continents etc. The map pre-dates Cook's discoveries in the Pacific and along the NW Coast of America. The incomplete Australia and New Zealand and NW Coast of America are of particular note, along with the near continuous land bridge from North America to Asia. The focus of the notes on the map are the Russian Discoveries in the North Pacific by Tchirikow and others. Embellished with female allegorical symbols of the four continents in the corners. Engraved by Rollos.
