Description:

Remarkable survey chart of San Pedro and Long Beach Harbors, by the Army Corps of Engineers.

The chart includes lots of detail and offers a rare look at the area before extensive development. Deanman's Island still shown as are several dock in the San Pedro around "Timm's Point". Main channel extends into the Wilmington area with a large turning basin just off "Mormon Island". Dozens of place names and name of companies .

Rail and electric lines shown. In Long Beach is noted a Craig Shipbuilding company. Street grids shown, but no names. Shadows depict areas dredged or scheduled to be dredged.

A nice early map of the harbors.
