Description:

Gorgeous example of De Fer's map of Switzerland, as updated and corrected by his successor, Louis Charles Desnos.

Superbly detailed map, with 13 coats of arms for the Swiss Cantons and 11 coats of arms for the allies and 7 "Sujets."

Nicolas de Fer (1646-1720) was the youngest son of Parisian print and map seller, Antoine de Fer [d.1673]. He became an official geographer to both French and Spanish kings. Nicholas de Fer was one of the most prolific and influential French geographers and cartographers of the late 17th and early 18th Century. The present example was issued by Charles-Louis Desnos, the successor to De Fer.
