Description:

Interesting map of the United States, hand colored by State. The most notable features of the map are in the West, where the so-called projected states of Idaho, Montana, Dacotah and Wyoming are shown, each with an odd, although remotely accurate configuration. The former Baylor Line (Arizona below New Mexico) is shown in the wash coloring. Nevada is oddly misshaped and truncated at the bottom and Utah is still in its earliest configuration, prior to losing territory to Nevada. Railroads and early roads are shown, along with towns, mountains, rivers, lakes, Indian Tribes, etc.
