Description:

Rare early plan of the Cape Nicola Mole (Bahie du Mole and Mole Saint-Nicolas) first published by Sayer & Bennett, one of the earliest obtainable English Plans of the harbor.

Includes a detailed charting of the harbor, fort and batteries, with soundings and anchorages, and place names. While Sayer frequently credited English and Spanish sources, the anonymous reference to "a French Survey" highlights the tensions between the two 18th Century "super-powers."
