Description:

Detailed map of the region bounded by the Ottawa River and Hudson Bay, drawn from John Mitchell's seminal map.

This map is a part of the Italian edition of John Mitchell's map of the British Colonies in North America. Issued both separately and as part of Zatta's Atlante Novissimo, the map is 1 of 12 sections comprising the Italian edition of Mitchell's map of North America. The Italian edition is richly illustrated with annotations not found on the English edition of the Mitchell.

John Mitchell's map of North America was the single most important American map of the 18th Century and is the foundation for virtually all boundary disputes and treaties beginning with the French & Indian War. It was drawn from the first available English and Indigenous surveys and includes remarkable detail regarding towns, roads, rivers, mountains and other regional features.
