Description:

Striking example of Ortelius' second map of Poland, which first appeared in the 1595 Latin edition of Ortelius' Theatrum. The map extends from the Dniepr River in the east to the Oder in the west and includes all of Poland, as well as Pomerania, Prussia Lithuania, and large parts of Russia, Moldovia, Czechoslovakia and Hungary. Interesting small vignette. A gorgeous full color example with wide clean margins. An attractive example from a 1603 edition of Ortelius' Theatrum Orbis Terrarum, the first modern atlas. Nevertheless, a striking example of this important map.
