Description:

Nice example of the scarce third state of Ruscelli's map of the Holy Land and Cyprus, one of the earliest obtainable separately published maps of the region.

The third edition of the map includes a sailing ship not present in the earlier editions of the map.

Ruscelli's Atlas is an expanded edition of Gastaldi's Atlas of 1548, which has been called the most comprehensive atlas produced between Martin Waldseemüller's Geographiae of 1513, and the Abraham Ortelius Theatrum of 1570. Ruscelli and Gastaldi's maps were beautifully engraved on copper, marking a turning point in the history of cartography. From that point forward, the majority of cartographic works used this medium. As it was a harder material than wood it gave the engraver the ability to render more detail.
