Description:

Fine example of this striking view of the island of Certosa.

Marco Boschini (1613-1678), was an Italian painter and engraver of the early Baroque period in Venice. He was born in Venice, and was educated in the school of Palma il Giovane. He painted The Last Supper for the sacristy of San Girolamo at Venice. He also distinguished himself as an engraver and as a writer of art. He was the author of several publications, such as: La Carta del Navegar pittoresco (1660), a panegyric poem about Venetian painting, which included this view.
