Description:

Striking example of Jansson's map of South America.

The map provides substantial detail in South America, along with a number of vignettes showing native scenes, animals, canoes and huts. Off shore a number of sailing ships, canoes and sea monsters appear off both coasts. Massive decorative cartouche shows natives with weaponry and indigenous flora and fauna.

One of the earliest separate maps of South America and one of the first decorative maps of South America to appear in a Dutch Atlas. Clean margins.
