Description:

Rare large format sea chart of Florida, the Gulf Coast and the Caribbean, published in 1868 by James Imray.

The map provides an exceptionally detailed treatment of the Florida and Gulf Coasts, shortly after the conclusion of the American Civil War. Lighthouses are noted in color throughout.

The map retains the denotation of East and West Florida, although now nearly 40 years extinct.

The coastal detail, soundings and nautical features are exceptional, presenting the best obtainable surveys and details of the period.

Detailed Condition:

Minor soiling and foxing.
