Description:

Rare large format sea chart of the Bay of Bengal and environs, published in 1858 by James Imray.

The map provides a fine treatment of the region, including a number of large harbor insets and notes with sailing directions, tidal observations, etc.

The chart is apparently quite rare on the market. We located an example of the 1850 and 1868 editions having been sold in the past 25 years.

Detailed Condition:

Blue backed sea chart. One repaired tear. Minor soiling.
