Description:

Fine bird's eye view of New Orleans, published in the 1850s by C. Matter and J.H. Locher.

A fine aerial view of the New Orleans, Louisiana, waterfront showing the cityscape, busy ports, and steamboats and ships in the Mississippi River.

The view is likely drawn from Bachmann's view of the City.

The Locher firm of St. Gall, Switzerland, was active publishing views in New York and St. Gall in the 1850s. Their views are rare on the market and highly prized.

Detailed Condition:

Minor marginal tears, repaired on verso.
