Description:

Fine example of the first edition of the detailed sea chart of the seas around Denmark, Norway, Sweden and the western Baltic by Alexis Hubert Jaillot in Paris, by order of the King of France.

This chart, which would be widely copied and reissued for the next 100 years by other makers, shows the whole of Denmark and the surrounding seas in great detail, including parts of the coasts of Norway, Sweden and Germany, with the port cities named.

Depth soundings are marked along the coasts, and sandbanks indicated. It includes 3 distance scales, rhumb lines with one and a half compass roses (north to the left) and two keys, indentifying coastal and shallow water features.
