Description:

Scarce early coast to coast map of the United States, published in Boston by Annin & Smith.

The West is dominated by the Plains of Nuestra Senora and Luz along with a marvelous and unusual version of Lake Timpanagos.

California is New Albion. A number of early Indian tribes are shown, some strange (Red Indians, Plume Indians, Acluou Indians and Blue Indians) and some recognizable names (Black Foot Indians, Snake indians).

Many early western forts are shown.

The strange extension of Illinois is shown, which pushes Illinois to the west, but keeps Chicago (not named) on Lake Michigan.

Many other unusual anomalies.
