Description:

Interesting manuscript map of United States, drawn circa 1820.

The map includes Alabama Territory. Illinois Territory is pushed off Lake Michigan as was characteristic of maps published in this period.

East and West Florida are shown. East Florida existed as a Spanish province until 1822, although control was resolved by the Adams-Onís Treaty of 1819 (ratified in 1821), in which Florida became part of the United States.
