Description:

Finely engraved hand colored map of Maryland, colored by county and showing the various towns, roads, rivers, bridges, and a host of other details.

This is one of the earliest maps of Maryland published outside of the United States.

Overall plate size is 24x17 inches, surrounded by text describing the state, its population, governors, religion, education, commerce, climate topography and other details. From the French edition of Carey & Lea's American Atlas. A gorgeous example. The French edition is known for being a superior work, using better paper and a superior engraving technique.
