Description:

Antique World Map Published in Venice

First edition of Antonio Zatta's decorative double hemisphere map of the World, published in Venice in 1774.

Includes allegorical vignettes of the 4 continents, embellishing the outer corners.

The map depicts the recent discoveries of Captain James Cook, immediately following his discoveries in New Zealand and Australia.

The depiction of New Zealand is especially fascinating.

The map also includes interesting updated cartographic details along the Northeast Coast of America, including the Sea of the West.
