Description:

Scarce map of the Coast of South Carolina, published by the US Coast Survey.

Beautiful chart with seven insets of Confederate forts and headlands. At top, Sketch E showing the progress of the survey in Section No. V. The following year, until 1865, militarily sensitive charts were omitted. Fairly detailed inland, for example, all major roads and the street grid of Beaufort, Adam's Run, Charleston, Wills' Town, Legareville, etc.

Detailed Condition:

Minor toning at folds.
