Description:

Wide margined example of the northeastern sheet of F.A. Schraebl's 4 sheet wall map of North America, published in 1788.

The map extends from Charleston and Hilton Head, South Carolina in the south to Hudson's Bay and Newfoundland, centered on the Northeastern part of the newly independent United States.

Much of the detail in the map is credited to Governor Thomas Pownall, from whose map this map was largely adapted.

Extensive annotations throughout the map in German.
