Description:

The earliest obtainable large map of Mississippi Territory

Fine example of this important early map of Mississippi Territory, from the 1814 edition of Matthew Carey's General Atlas.

The map pre-dates the creation of Alabama Territory in 1817 and extends from Georgia to the Mississippi River. The map includes a number of early roads, towns, rivers, Indian tribes, settlements, and more. A number of early forts also appear, including Fort McHenry, Fort Stevens, and Fort Pickering. Many early Indian villages are also named.

An important map for Mississippi and Alabama collectors.
