Description:

Nice example of the Buchon's map of Guatemala, published in Paris in 1825.

The map also shows Honduras, Belize, Nicaragua and Costa Rica, with Belize called Colonie Anglaise de Balize.

At the time of the map, these countries were part of the United Provinces of Central America (also called the Federal Republic of Central America). Independence would not come for each until:

- Guatemala-1841
- Nicaragua-1838
- Honduras-1838
- Costa Rica-1838
- Belize-1960s

Overall plate size is 24 x 17 inches, surrounded by text describing the state, its population, governors, religion, education, commerce, climate topography and other details.
