Description:

Attractive map of Virginia, hand colored by county and showing the various towns, roads, rivers, bridges, and a host of other details.

This is one of the earliest maps of Virginia published outside of the United States, after the conclusion of the American Revolution.

Overall plate size is 24x17 inches, surrounded by text describing the state, its population, governors, religion, education, commerce, climate, topography and other details.

From the French edition of Carey & Lea's American Atlas. A gorgeous example. The French edition is known for being a superior work, using better paper and a superior engraving technique.

Detailed Condition:

Some staining at the edges outside the printed image.
