Description:

Interesting early map of Minnesota Territory, immediately after the conception of the Dakotah Territory, which is still not named in the title, but appears with border in the map. No counties in Dakotah. Minnesota is still dominated in the north by massive counties, including Lake Superior, St. Louis, Itasca and Pembina County, which shows as including most of Dakotah. Nice annotations within the map.

Shows towns, townships, railroads, stations, rivers, lakes, post offices and a host of other details. One of the best early regional maps. JH Colton was one of the pre-eminent American map publishing firms in the mid-19th century.
