Description:

Unrecorded 1818 edition of Aaron Arrowsmith's double hemisphere world map.

Dedicated to Alexander Dalrymple and bearing the portraits of Dalrymple and James Cook, the map is one of the largest world maps produced in Great Britain.

The present edition has been significantly updated from the 1808 edition (see Rumsey), most notably, the addition of a coastline along the southern coast of Australia.

Detailed Condition:

Dissected and laid on linen. Title sheets on separate sheets, not joined to the map.
