Description:

An Iconic Victorian Plan of London

Striking full color example of John Tallis's town plan of London, which includes 50 separate city views.

A remarkable large format work, perhaps the most decorative of all of Tallis' City Plans.

Tallis was one of the last great decorative map makers. His maps are prized for the wonderful vignettes of indigenous scenes, people, etc. The town plans engraved by Tallis appear in only a small percentage of his works, making them harder to obtain than his regional maps.

Detailed Condition:

Minor fold splits and tears, expertly repaired on the verso.
