Description:

Rare separately issued sea chart of San Francisco Bay and Vicinity, extending from Monterey Bay to Bodega Bay.

Originally issued by the US Coast Survey in 1862, the map was later updated and offered as a separate issue on thicker paper.

The present example includes a paste down advertisement for Edward Dillon, Chronometer and Watch Maker, No. 508 Battery Street, San Francisco, and includes a number of different testimonial letters from satisfied clients.

This later edition of the map, which adds a number of new profile views, is scarce on the market, especially in such fine condition.
