Description:

Rare birdseye view illustrating Glacier Park and environs.

The present example is a separately issued example, which was a Supplement to the April, 1913 edition of Travel Magazine. The view would later be re-issued with different coloration in 1914.

Provides a fantastic topographical illustration of the area between Flathead River and the Glacier Park Hotel, with towns, mountains, roads, rivers, hotels and other details shown.

The view is apparently quite rare on the market.

Detailed Condition:

Minor fold splits, expertly repaired on verso.
