Description:

Highly detailed map of Florida, prepared by the Surveyor General of the United States.

This state survey map is drawn on a scale of 12 miles to the inch. It shows the topography, vegetation, towns, cities, forts, rivers, lakes, swamps and many early trails and roads. Most of the state is shown as surveyed with a key designating the extent or the work completed. Area extends to show the keys and to Dry Tortugas Island and Ft. Jefferson, and locates Ft. Lauderdale, Boca Rabones, Key Biscayne, scores of smaller keys and much, much more.

The map is signed in the plate by John Westcott.
