Description:

Detailed engraving, illustrating the passages of Joshua 11.

Joshua 11.8 describes the King of Asor of the Amorites reaching out to the allied kings in order to attack the Israelites. This was the second battle against the Amorite tribes led by Joshua, both of which resulted in resounding victories for the Israelites. This second battle occurred at the waters of Merom (Meiron) an ancient Canaanite city in the northern part of the modern state of Israel.
