Description:

Rare First State of Colton's Sectional Map of Iowa

Highly detailed map of Iowa, colored by counties, published by the J H Colton & Company of New York and bears an 1864 copyright.

The map includes a reference key explaining Township Sections, along with key for symbols noting Railroads, Towns, Post Offices, etc.

The map was published at a time of explosive growth in Iowa.

While the later editions of this map appear occasionally on the market, the 1865 is very rare. We note no auction or dealer catalog records for the first state of this map.

Detailed Condition:

The map has been archivally cleaned and backed, in order to support a number of intersection fold splits, with some minor loss of image, as well as some minor loss along the folds and fold intersections.
