Description:

Scarce map of Poland, showing both the dismemberment and newest boundaries, following the Congress of Vienna.

This map was originally published with a different title by William Faden in 1799. The map is based on the Rizzi-Zannoni 24-sheet map of 1772 that was commissioned by the King of Poland. An inset contains a bird's-eye plan of Warsaw flanked by tables of information concerning the population, religion, and languages.

A color key below the title identifies the regions of Prussia, Russia, Austria and the Kingdom of Poland.

A scarce variant--this is the first time we have handled this state of the map.

Detailed Condition:

Minor offsetting.
