Description:

Detailed Revolutionary War era map of Dominica, with a large inset map depicting a Naval engagement showing 7 French Frigates attacking the British positions on the island on September 7, 1778.

The map provides a fine topographical overview of the island, based upon the map of the island by John Byres, entitled Plan of the island of Dominica laid down by actual survey under the direction of the Honorable the Commissioners for the Sale of Lands in the Ceded Islands, published in 1776.

Detailed Condition:

Dampstaining at top and bottom right corners, just entering printed image.
