Description:

Nice example of William Faden's English edition of the AE Lapie Map of the French Empire, etc., published in 1813.

The map shows the extent of French success due to Napoleon's empire building through his military campaigns.

Very detailed and includes three panels. The one on the left is a list of the departments of France (continued at the bottom in another panel) while the one right lists the departments in Italy.

Detailed Condition:

Minor offsetting.
