Description:

Detailed map of Connecticut and Long Island, colored by counties and showing towns, counties, townships, post offices, depots, rivers, railroads, and substantial additional details. Large inset of Boston vicinity. Decorative border.

A terrific map, from JH Colton, one of the most prolific American mapmakers of the mid-19th century. From the scarce 1859 edition, bearing the imprint of Johnson & Browning, one year before these two publishers commenced publication of Johnson's Illustrated Family Atlas of the World. Marvelous vibrant colors.
