Description:

Woodblock kwaraban plan of Nagasaki Bay.

The fan-shaped area in the middle of the image is Dejima where the Dutch were allowed to live and trade with the Japanese authorities. The square land on the left of Dejima is the Chinese quarter with the storehouse and rice granary, another square section of land connected by a bridge, the Chinese residential area. Three large vessels are shown in the bay, a Chinese vessel, a Dutch vessel and in the upper section an Indian ship. A list of officials assigned to coastal defense duty is inset along the upper right of the image.

Detailed Condition:

Few stray wormholes.
