Custer County

Custer County was first formed in 1891 as an original county from what was previously Cheyenne land, and called G County. I was renamed Custer County in November 1896, named for General George Armstrong Custer. The county was settled by white settlers during the third official land run of April 19, 1892.

W. R. Hughes

The Custer County Abstract Company was first founded by W. R. Hughes in 1897. The company exists today and advertises that "Custer County Abstract Company may well be the only abstract company in
