Description:

Scarce 19th Century reproduction of Gaspard-Joseph Chaussegros de Léry's manuscript plan of Quebec, drawn in 1720.

This plan presents the city of Quebec in 1720, located between the St. Lawrence River and the Saint-Charles River, specifying the location of buildings and land forms. A legend of 25 entries specifies the nature of some elements represented.

Detailed Condition:

Ex Rochester Historical Society, including stamps.
