Description:

Rare map of San Francisco from a Perron's Nouvelle Geographie Universelle. Shows all of San Francisco Bay to Alviso and Redwood City. Extends east to Antioch and New York along the San Joaquin. Extends north to include San Antonio, Napa Creek and Tamales Bay. Early European maps of San Francisco are very uncommon. This is the first time we have ever seen this unusual map offered separately, although we do own a copy of the atlas in our private collection. An excellent San Francisco map.
