Description:

Nice old color example of De Wit's map of the Duchy of Savoy and Piemonte, showing from Geneva to Nice and Monaco

This detailed regional map covers the Rhone-Alps region including a portion of Italy and Switzerland. It extends from Grenoble in the west, Geneva in the north, Monaco in the south, and Vercellia and Savona in the east, and includes Turin. Fortified cities, small towns, and monasteries fill the landscape along with topographical depictions of hills and mountains.

The map includes the name of the London map seller John Overton, who was also offering the map for sale.
