Description:

Includes the Projected Territories of Colona and Shoshone.

Andriveau-Goujon's 2-sheet map of the United States.

Unlike later editions of the map, the Territory of Colona appears, predating the appearance of Colorado. Similarly, an oddly misprojected Idaho appears, but is called Shoshone. Massive Nebraska runs to the Canadian Border. Arizona is below New Mexico. Many early roads, forts and Indian Tribes noted in the west.

A highly desirable map and essential item for Colorado, Idaho, and Western collections.

Detailed Condition:

Old hand-color. Disected on original linen.
