Description:

Finely engraved image of Pizarro's attack on Puna Island, in 1531.

The Battle of Puná, fought on the island in April 1531, was an engagement of Francisco Pizarro during the Spanish conquest of Peru. It was fought by the Spanish conquistadores allied with the natives of Tumbez, against their rivals, the people of Puna.

The inset map shows a town on Puna Island, with nearly a dozen Spanish ships off the coast.
