Description:

A Graphic Expression of the Pep and Enthusiasm Being Manifested In The Preparation for this Great Meeting.

Pictorial map of the United States, prepared by Clyde C. Clack in 1936, with a description of the Western Arts Association program for this "Arts Jamboree on the verso.

This lively pictorial map emphasizes tourist destinations and transit to the Meeting from the four corners of the United States and abroad, with George S. Dutch and Company proclaiming, "There's room for you all down here in Nashville." Many whimsical vignettes highlight other tourist features of the country.

Clyde C. Clack would go on to a prosperous art career.
