Description:

Vintage Pictorial Map of the University of Southern California.

Attractive pictorial of the USC campus, here called "Troy Town", illustrated by Pollie Mitchell and printed by the Litho-Art Printing Company.

The map shows numerous USC historical landmarks: the Mudd Hall tower, Student Union, Doheny Library, etc. The map shows the campus between Jefferson Blvd., Exposition Blvd., Hoover St., and roughly to Figueroa.

The map shows KUSC, which began broadcasting in 1946.

Very rare. No copies located in OCLC, nor in any market database. We cannot trace it through Google.

Detailed Condition:

Very light water stain.
