Description:

Nice map of the Western Hemisphere, published in London by Wyld.

South America appears at the height of its Revolutionary period, where Spain and Brazil were losing their colonies.

The Newly independent Mexico is shown, with Adams-Onís Treaty boundaries. No sign of Moses Austin's first Texas colony.

In the northwest, a decidedly British boundary is shown between British Canada and Oregon Territory. Many Hudson Bay Company houses and factories are shown.

In the Arctic regions, the recent expedition of Ross and Parry is shown.
