Description:

Rare historical / pictorial map of the Mormon Route from Nauvoo to Salt Lake, drawn by Robert A. Hanson.

The map was likely published by the Western Cover Society, a California based society which published the Western Express. Hanson's maps were advertised for sale in this journal as early as 1969.

The map provides an elegant overview route, with daily stops, distances and illustrations of important venues along the route, including:

- Mt. Pisca
- Lone Tree
- Rebecca Winter's Grave
- Chimney Rock
- Ft. Laramie
- Old Ft. Bridger
- Red Bluffs
- Independence Rock

Rarity

The map is now apparently quite rare. We were unable to locate another example.
